Special Tuition Rates

The University also provides special tuition rates for the following populations of students.

- x Alumni: All alumni students who are applying to a new University of Phoenix bachelor program; who have previously completed a degree program with University of Phoenix; whose account with the University is in good standing; and who didn't earn the previous degree as an en-route credential; will be charged the 'Alumni' tuition rate. Students in this category will be given a guarantee of these tuition rates until their program completion deadline, unless they change programs or program versions.
- x Associate Transfer: Students who are applying to a University of Phoenix bachelor's degree program for the first time and who have earned an associate's degree from a college or university with approved institutional accreditation (or nationally accredited nursing program), or who are concurrent enrollment program (CEP) cohort students completing their Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) and Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) simultaneously, will be charged the 'Associate Transfer' tuition rate, effective as of the date the associate's degree

PLACEMENT RATES:

Graduate Placement Rate: 20% of graduates during 2022-2023 obtained full-time, non-temporary jobs in their field of study.

Total Placement Rate: 17% of students that enrolled in the program during 2022-2023 obtained full-time, non-temporary jobs in their field of study.

Employment statistics substantiating these placement rates are available for inspection on request. The University collected this information via survey from students graduating during 2022 and 2023. The University notes that despite reasonable efforts taken to gather employment data from graduates, many graduates do not respond to the survey. The overall response rate of Massachusetts graduates across all University of Phoenix programs to the survey was 63%.

For purposes of computing the graduate placement rate, only graduates who affirmatively responded to the survey and indicated that they obtained full-time (at least 32 hours per week), non-temporary employment in
